Zanes Law Helps A Record Breaking 400 Tucson Teachers

Highly anticipated event on August 1st to provide free supplies to Tucson teachers

Tucson, Ariz. (July 27, 2015) – Tucson personal injury firm, Zanes Law, will host its Fifth Annual School Supply Giveaway on Saturday, Aug. 1st. At the first school supply giveaway in 2010, 100 lucky teachers benefited from the program. Each year the event continues to grow. This year, a record-breaking 400 teachers are expected to attend and the wait list is rapidly growing!

Supplies being given away include everything from markers, to paper, to classroom cleaning supplies and more.

Zanes Law knows the importance of providing teachers with the tools needed to give local youth the best education possible.

Teacher, Jackie Shope, who has attended all 5 years, posted her gratitude for the new school supplies after last year's giveaway on the Zanes Law Facebook page: "Thank you so much for the generous supply donation this morning. I look forward to it every year. I had fun and enjoyed seeing you all. Thanks again!"

"By helping teachers with the supplies they need to serve our youth at the highest level, we hope to alleviate the burden associated with budget cuts and extra expenses so educators can focus on what they do best: teaching," said Doug Zanes, owner and responsible attorney of Zanes Law.

New this year, Zanes Law is partnering with the American Red Cross and their bloodmobile will be stationed at the event to collect blood since blood donations are lowest during the summer.
